

1. Can everyone take part in the Runmageddon Sahara?

Of course! During the first edition there were not only sport lunatics, but also people who were completely spontaneous.

2. Is this the case for both men and women?

Definitely yes. However, both sexes will be tested in the same way, with no reduction in fares.

3. What conditions do I have to fulfil to be able to participate?

Each participant must be in possession of a passport valid at least until 30 September 2019. In addition, the condition of participation is the acceptance of all required approvals and regulations and the payment of appropriate fees within the time limits specified by the organizer.

4. Do I need to be at least 18 years old?

The condition of participation is to be at least 18 years old at the latest on the day of the beginning of the event.

5. Where exactly will the trails run?

The routes of the un will be mapped out in the sandy dunes and the rocky desert in southern Morocco. At the moment, we are not disclosing the exact location.

6. Where will we sleep during the event?

We anticipate accommodation on a camp site and at a hotel.

7. What will be the length of the individual sections of the route?

The number of kilometres to travel during the day may vary from location to location.

8. What awaits me along the way?

Sand, sand and even more sand! There may also be obstacles which we use at Runmageddons in Poland. Expect plenty of emotion!

9. Do everybody run simultaneously?

Yes, you all start together.

10. I paid for it, but I can't run - what now?

According to the rules you can withdraw from the purchase up to 7 days, but don't panic - you can also sell your package to someone else.

11. Will there be a place to wash yourself in the desert?

Of course!

12. How many pieces of luggage / personal belongings can I bring with me?

You can take 1 piece of checked baggage and 1 piece of hand luggage.

13. When will I receive the starter pack?

Be patient, we will organize a meeting before the event and then we will distribute the starter kits.

14. Will there be any meetings before the event?

Yes, we are planning a meeting for the participants. We will keep you informed about the time and place.

15. I would like to receive an invoice for the run.

Simply write an email to kontakt@runmageddon.pl with the following details: company name, address and NIP, names and surnames of persons taking part in the race.

16. I paid in the money yesterday and I'm still waiting for the verification.

Don't worry, the list of applications and payments is verified manually approximately every 72 hours. If your application has not been properly verified by the given deadline, please send your payment confirmation to kontakt@runmageddon.pl

17. Will we have anything to do after the race?

Well, surely! We provide an unforgettable experience!

18. I want to pay the second part of the fee - how do I do it?

Just make a wire transfer to the following account:

07 2490 0005 0000 4600 1110 6315

Extreme Events sp. z o.o.o.

00-972 Warszawa

Enter "Runmageddon Sahara 2019 - Part II" in the transfer title.

If the company pays for you, your full name should also be included in the title.

19. What is included in the price of the event?

Depending on the edition, the packages may vary, but they always include flights, accommodation, food, drinking water, medical care, insurance, a jacket and two technical T-shirts.

20. Will there be regeneration points on the route?

Yes, there will be rege points at each stage. Their number depends on the stage.

21. What should I bring with me?

Passport valid until at least 30 September 2019, cream with UV filter (recommended UV30+), lipstick with UV filter, water bottle, hat, small running backpack, first aid kit (patches, bandages, salt pills).

22. I have never been to Morocco, is it safe there?

Morocco is a safe country. We need to adhere to the similar safety measures we adhere to in unknown places in Poland, Europe and around the world.